

ON the twenty fourth day of December - 1858, the Will with ~~Codicil~~ thereto of William Appleby late of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne Stone Merchant deceased, who died on or about the second day of May 1858, at Newcastle upon Tyne aforesaid was proved in the District Registry attached to Her Majesty's Court of Probate at NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE by the Oaths of

Margaret Appleby of Newcastle upon Tyne aforesaid Widow the Relict of the said deceased and Robert Appleby of the same place Butcher the son of the said deceased the Executors therein named they having been first sworn duly to administer -

Effects under £ 300

No Leaseholds

The Will of William Appleby of Newcastle upon Tyne Stone Merchant I appoint my Wife Margaret Appleby Executors and my son Robert Appleby to be Executors of this my Will. I give devise and bequeath all my real and personal estate and effects whatsoever and wheresoever unto my said Wife and son to be holden by them Upon trust firstly by sale or mortgage thereof or of any part thereof or by any other ways and means to raise and pay my debts funeral expenses and the costs and charges of proving this my Will Secondly to pay the net rents dividends and annual proceeds of the residue of my said property estate and effects unto my said Wife during her life Thirdly from and after the decease of my said Wife as to my Freehold dwellinghouse with its appurtenances situate on the east side of William Street Arthurs Hill Newcastle upon Tyne to convey and assure the same unto my said son Robert absolutely and as to the remainder of my said property estate and effects by sale or mortgage thereof or of any part thereof or by any other ways and means to raise and pay unto each of my daughters Margaret the Wife of Edward Scott and Jane the Wife of George Jeffrey the sum of One hundred pounds for her own sole and separate use free from marital control and for which her receipt alone notwithstanding her coverture shall be a sufficient discharge and subject thereto to convey assign and assure the said remainder of my property estate and effects unto my said son Robert and my said two daughters in equal shares and proportions as Tenants in common absolutely the share of each of my said daughters to be for her own sole and separate use and benefit free from marital control and for which her receipts alone notwithstanding coverture shall be a sufficient discharge And I declare firstly that the receipts in writing of my said Trustees shall be sufficient discharges for all money to be received by them respectively pursuant to this my Will and shall exonerate the person or persons paying the same from all liability in respect of

The application thereof And secondly that my said Trustees shall not be answerable for the acts and defaults of each other nor for any involuntary loss and shall be at liberty to deduct and retain out of my said property estate and effects all costs and expenses which they may respectively incur or sustain in the execution of this ~~will~~ my will or in relation thereto In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand the seventeenth day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty six — William C. Millly — signed by the said Testator in the presence of us present at the same time who in his presence and in the presence of each other after the same was signed by him have hereunto subscribed our names as Witnesses Wm. Edw. Robinson Clerk to Messrs Ingledew & Daggett Esqrs Newcastle — William Armstrong Grocer and Flour Dealer Arthur's Hill Newcastle &c.

(17 folios)

Certified Copy,

